

From the Bayou to the Windy City

Chris Greive Trombone

Born in Perth, Western Australia in 1969, Chris Greive started his musical life on trombone and gained his BMus degree through Western Australian Academy of Performing Arts (WAAPA) jazz program. Chris has recorded and performed with many acts on the Perth Jazz scene, including his wife Becc Sanderson and The Michael Pigneguy Sextet (to name only a few), and was a finalist in the Australian Jazz Brass Awards (1996) before relocating to Scotland in 2000.

Chris has toured with the likes of The Bad Plus and Salsa Celtica and his own highly acclaimed group NeWt (Ensemble of the Year at the 2012 Scottish Jazz Awards). NeWt were chosen to represent Scotland at the Made in the UK showcase at the 2012 Rochester Jazz Festival as well as playing dates at the Toronto Jazz and Vancouver Jazz Festivals. NeWt's most recent album, NeWt North, was released in autumn 2013 featuring music devised on, and influenced by, the local environment and stories from Unst, Shetland. He currently teaches Jazz Arranging, History and Improvisation at the RCS, and plays Lead Trombone with the Scottish National Jazz Orchestra, with whom he recently toured the USA, recording with Randy Brecker, Mike Stern and Kurt Elling among others.
