

Macbeth

By William Shakespeare

Tue 17 - Sat 21 Jan 2017

Running time: 1hr 48 mins

There will be no interval

A bloody, all female, tale of the original killer couple, the Macbeths, who murder their way to the Scottish throne. Rapid political advancement, erotic power and naked ambition at its most ruthless and destructive, while ghosts and witches provide a backdrop to the rise and fall of two of Shakespeare's most flawed characters.
