

Coriolanus

By William Shakespeare

Fri 27 Jan - Wed 1 Feb 2017

When an old adversary threatens Rome the city calls on her hero, Coriolanus. But famine threatens the city and the people want change, so Coriolanus is forced to confront the march of an angry, politicised and re-energised people with disastrous consequences. Conflict, revenge and the power of the people are all explored in this contemporary new staging of Shakespeare's political tragedy.

A Midsummer Night's

Dream

Wed 22 - Fri 24 Mar

Straight from the dark corners of his imagination, but also rooted in both Greek mythology and 16th century English court and country, this most loved of Shakespeare's plays is both a delightful comedy and a sombre look at some of the darker corners of the human psyche.
